Day 1: San Francisco

On arrival in San Francisco, exit after immigration and customs, transfer to your hotel, and check-in. Enjoy the unique atmosphere and eclectic mix of architecture in San Francisco. Evening at leisure can visit the Mission District– known for its vibrant Mural street lines and restaurants or spend time at Dolores park. Later sail across San Francisco Bay at twilight to admire the city skyline as it begins to light up for the night. Spend time on the water with the twinkling city skyline as your backdrop. Take in the views and enjoy the sea breeze on the exterior decks, cut loose on the dance floor with a DJ spinning and enjoy the dinner. Overnight in San Francisco.

Day 2: San Francisco

Today we will Ride a GoCar all over San Francisco along with a city tour of San Francisco in which we see the famous Golden Gate Bridge - the world’s longest single-span suspension bridge and a symbol of the city. Explore the city at your own pace, stopping to spend more time at places that interest you. Landmarks include over 50 points of interest like Ocean Beach, Golden Gate Park, Fort Point, Crissy Field, Lombard Street and the Palace of Fine Arts.In the evening, we can take a ride in the cable car or the Alcatraz Cruise. Enjoy an evening at Fisherman’s Wharf. Overnight in San Francisco.

Day 3: San Francisco. Pebble Beach. Monterey bay

Today post breakfast checkout from the hotel and pick up your campervan. Today enjoy an excursion to Pebble Beach. It is a secluded beach nestled in the forest of Tamales Bay State Park. The small coastal residential community of mostly single-family homes is also notable as a resort destination, and the home of the golf courses of Cypress Point Club, Monterey Peninsula Country Club, and Pebble Beach Golf Links. Also, explore the southern part of California by stopping at Monterey, it has some of the state's oldest historic sites. Explore through the shops of Cannery Row for the Monterey Walking Path of History in the Monterey State Historic Park is home to the Monterey Bay Aquarium, Cannery Row, and Fisherman's Wharf, Monterey. It's a popular strip of gift shops, seafood restaurants, and bars in converted factories. Overnight in San Francisco. Camp Sites: Andrew Molera State Park, Big Sur Campground and Cabins, Fremont Peak State Park

Day 4: San Francisco. Napa Valley

Proceed to San Francisco via visiting the most famous wineries of Napa and Sonoma valley. Napa Valley is home to more than 475 wineries (including 375 open for tasting appointments) and 90 urban tasting rooms, and some of the world's most coveted grapevines. Sprinkled in between vineyard-covered hillsides are charming destinations with entertaining and delicious things to fill busy days in wine country. After the enchanting nature soothes your soul, drive to the 'City by the Bay' in sunny California. Located on the bay, its suburbs are linked by a series of expansive bridges, one of those being the infamous Golden Gate Bridge. Trams run major routes along the foreshore and into the hilly heights in a city where quaint wooden houses contrast sharply with the sophistication of modern skyscrapers. Overnight in Lake Tahoe.

Day 5: Lake Tahoe

Lake Tahoe is a large freshwater lake in the Sierra Nevada known as the world's largest alpine lakes and America's second deepest. Proceed to take Heavenly Mountain Gondola ride at the south of Lake Tahoe and overview the beautiful surrounding covered with mountain and panoramic view of Lake Tahoe from the observation deck. In the evening, experience the Dinner Cruise which starts at 6 that offers an unforgettable Tahoe sunset. Enjoy fresh menus as you cruise against a backdrop of astonishing views over Emerald Bay. Signature cocktails and fine wines are available for purchase on-board. Enjoy dinner and an astonishing view of the lake. Overnight at Lake Tahoe.Camp Sites: Sugar Pine Point Campground, DL Bliss State Park,

Day 6: Mammoth Lakes

Take a drive towards the next destination that is Mammoth Lakes. Mammoth lakes the name speaks to the size of the mountains, the expanse of the valleys, the incredible number of crystal clear mountain lakes and the endless opportunities for adventure. There is a lot of debate about which season is best. Whether it's hiking, horseback riding, mountain biking, climbing and mountaineering, kayaking, a round of golf, fishing, or just sightseeing there are plenty of activities and festivals celebrating this transitional beauty. Overnight in Mammoth Lakes. Camp Sites: New Shady Rest Campground, Old Shady Rest Campground, Sherwin Creek Campground, Coldwater Campground

Day 7: Yosemite National Park

Today proceed for an excursion to Yosemite National Park. This paradise quickly becomes the highlight of many Escapee adventures. Favourites include White Wolf, Yosemite Creek, and Tamarack Flat. Up on Glacier Point Road is another truly epic first-come campground named Bridalveil Creek. While there are a multitude of things to do in Yosemite Valley, driving about an hour south to the Mariposa Grove of Giant Sequoias provides a different–and equally rewarding–experience. Overnight in Mammoth Lakes.Camp Sites: Upper Pines Campground, Wawona Campground, Tuolumne Meadows Campground.

Day 8: Santa Barbara

Today proceed to Santa Barbara. Located on a pristine stretch of California's central coastline, Santa Barbara brings together the Golden State's Spanish influence, laid-back vibe. Santa Barbara is best known for its broad, sandy beaches, and whether you're looking to catch the perfect wave or the perfect sunset.

Explore East Beach is a favourite located east of State Street, Santa Barbara's main thoroughfare for shopping and dining, and Stearns Wharf, the oldest working pier in California. Also, you can explore Arroyo Burro Beach, Butterfly Beach, Leadbetter Beach. Overnight in Santa Barbara. Camp Sites: Rancho Oso RV & Camping Resort, Santa Barbara Sunrise RV Park, Carpinteria State Beach Campground.

Day 9: Santa Barbara

Later today stroll down Main Street in Santa Barbara or visit the historic Mission and the Spanish style Court House. Downtown, Mediterranean-style white stucco buildings with red-tile roofs reflect the city's Spanish colonial heritage. Upscale boutiques and restaurants offering local wines and seasonal fare line State Street. Enjoy the evening with plenty of dining options—from harbour-side classics, stylish Funk Zone hot spots and cosy State Street cafés to casual taquerias, elegant wine bars and cocktail lounges. Overnight in Santa Barbara.
